"TOP BET") TERMS AND CONDITIONS

GENERAL INFORMATION CONCERNING ITS INTERNET BETTING SITE AND THE CONDUCT OF INTERNET BETTING TRANSACTIONS

1. COPYRIGHT

- 1.1. Top Bet has caused to have the contents of this Part A and Parts B, C and D devised and created by legal counsel and it has thereby expended considerable time and financial resources in doing so.
- 1.2. By virtue of the recordal in 1.1, the contents of this Part A and Parts B, C and D and more particularly the text, the layout and general format constitutes the lawful intellectual property of Top Bet. Accordingly, Parts A, B C and D constitute work of a copyright nature which vest in Top Bet and accordingly may not be infringed through copying (outright and/or partially) by any other party. In the event of infringement of its intellectual property rights then Top Bet will be entitled to take legal steps to prohibit the continuation of such copyright infringement and to lodge the relevant criminal complaint (for prosecution proceedings to be initiated), always subject to their right to claim whatever damages that it is entitled to claim in law.

2. ABOUT TOP BET AND ITS INTERNET AND MOBI BETTING SITE

- 2.1. Top Bet is a private company duly registered and incorporated according to the Company Laws of the Republic of South Africa, and having registration number 2008/006710/07. Top Bet has operated as a licensed bookmaker since April 2008 and has strived to conduct itself in an honest and fair manner and more particularly has complied with all its obligations and more particularly the obligations imposed by the The Gauteng Gambling Act No. 4 of 1995 ("The Gambling Act").
- 2.2. Top Bet has been issued with a bookmaker's licence by the Gauteng Gambling Board, (an authority which regulates and controls gambling in the geographical area of Gauteng in South Africa) (its contact details are indicated in paragraph 12.2.) which entitles it to transact betting transactions with members of the general public, such licence having been issued in terms of the provisions of section 54 read with section 32 of The Gambling Act. The Gambling Act, and more particularly in terms of section 37, entitles the Gauteng Gambling Board to suspend and/or revoke Top Bet's bookmaker's licence if it does not conduct itself and its business in a fit and proper manner.
- 2.3. The National Gambling Board of South Africa and the Gauteng Gambling Board has consented to Top Bet transacting betting transactions via the internet, which is possible as a result of the utilisation of an electronic agent in the nature of a computer software programme (which has been tested and approved by the South African Bureau of Standards) which in turn gives rise to the creation of an automated betting transaction and thus a legally binding contract (confirmation hereof is to be obtained from www.ngb.org.za or info@ngb.org.za).

- 2.4. The means by which betting transactions are created is through an electronic agent and more particularly a computer software programme. The computer software programme enables Top Bet to convey to its customers the existence of various sporting events on which various types of betting odds are offered by it. Although Top Bet will make every effort to ensure that the computer software programme is functioning to its optimum, and more particularly efficiently and correctly, this unfortunately can never be guaranteed. Furthermore, although Top Bet will make every effort to ensure that errors do not take place, the information in the nature of betting odds, and/or participants and/or dates and times of sporting events, and/or the amount available to be won on a specific betting transaction may for example be incorrectly "typed in" and thereby captured onto the internet betting site i.e. as a consequence of human error. When this occurs Top Bet will have the right at any time to amend and/or void any betting transactions which then arise and as a consequence of the error. Accordingly, and whenever it appears to a customer that an error exists (as a result of the obvious failure of the computer software programme and/or as a result of obvious human error), then the customer should immediately telephonically communicate with Top Bet so as to draw attention to the error and thereby to avoid disappointment.
- 2.5. Top Bet is a member of the Gauteng Off Course Bookmakers' Association, (commonly known as "GOBA") (its contact details are indicated in paragraph 11.1) which association has as its members all licensed bookmakers in the geographical area known as Gauteng in South Africa. CONCLUSION OF BETTING TRANSACTION

- 8.2. Each time the customer makes an offer to conclude a specific betting transaction with Top Bet, the offer by the customer will be on the condition that the standard trading terms and conditions of Top Bet at that time shall be applicable and the acceptance of the offer by Top Bet shall likewise be subject to Top Bet's standard trading terms and conditions.
- 8.3. The conclusion of a successful betting transaction shall only be evidenced by the computer system and more particularly the computer software programme of Top Bet capturing the betting transaction. Once this has occurred, the customer cannot cancel and/or vary same in any manner whatsoever. All successful betting transactions may be viewed by the customer under the heading "Pending Bets" and the customer is urged to view same in order to confirm the status of its betting transactions. (Note that although a successful betting transaction may be confirmed, this does not mean that Top Bet will be thereafter precluded from voiding/or amending the betting transaction as a consequence of any breach of its standard trading terms and conditions and/or any mistake by Top Bet of whatsoever nature that has taken place and/or as a consequence of any malfunction of Top Bet's computer hardware and/or software programme).

TELEPHONIC TRANSACTIONS

- 8.4. Although Top Bet does not encourage its internet customers to transact betting transactions with it via the medium of a telephone, the internet customer agrees that should Top Bet, in its sole and unfettered discretion, agree to transact a telephonic betting transaction with the customer then in such event its standard terms and conditions as indicated in Part B and Parts C and D shall apply to the betting transaction.

UNLAWFUL USE OF AN INCORRECT CREDIT AMOUNT

- 8.5. A customer shall on no account utilise any credit amount that has been incorrectly credited to his internet betting account e.g. the amount credited is R2000.00 whereas it should be R200.00 or where an amount is credited to the incorrect customer's internet betting account. In the event that a customer utilises an incorrect credit amount in his internet betting account, which does not accrue to him, Top Bet shall be entitled to void all and/or any betting transactions and to claim from the customer all amounts wagered (relative to unsuccessful betting transactions concerning the use of incorrect amount credited to the relevant internet betting account).

VOIDING / CANCELLATION AND/OR REPLACING / ALTERING OF BETTING TRANSACTIONS

- 8.6. Top Bet shall be entitled at any time to void / cancel betting transactions under the following circumstances:-
- 8.6.1. The sporting event concerned has commenced and/or has been completed (this shall not apply to "in running" sporting events); and/or
- 8.6.2. the failure/inability by Top Bet's internet server to suspend betting and thereby ensuring that the software computer system does not accept the offers of customers and during the period that betting should have been suspended, betting transactions take place - for example where the internet server cannot be accessed by an employee of Top Bet and/or a contractor of Top Bet, as a result of the "freezing" of the system and/or the satellite "feed" malfunctioning in any respect, Top Bet's intention to suspend betting in order to change the betting odds as a consequence of the happening of an event e.g. a goal having been scored, a try having been scored, a wicket having fallen; and/or

- 8.6.3. the malfunctioning of the computer system (software and/or hardware) which results in the incorrect reflection of betting odds; and/or
 - 8.6.4. the customer makes use of a credit card to enter into a transaction with Top Bet which credit card is not in the customer's name and/or the use of such credit card was not authorised by the credit card holder to make use of same, regardless of whether or not Top Bet is notified of this by either the credit card holder, a financial institution and/or the South African Police Service; and/or
 - 8.6.5. the customer attempts to enter into transactions, and/or enters into transactions with Top Bet and Top Bet suspects that the customer has obtained the funds utilised by it to attempt to transact with Top Bet and/or to transact with Top Bet through illegal means.
- 8.7. Top Bet shall be entitled, at any time, to alter/vary any betting transaction where the incorrect betting odds have been reflected on its betting site due to human and/or software and/or hardware error/s.

9. BETTING TRANSACTION WIN LIMITS

- 9.1. By setting betting transaction limits (the maximum amount that can be won on any betting transaction whether it be a single bet or a multiple bet), Top Bet seeks to regulate and control its financial exposure as regards specific sporting events and/or specific bet types.
- 9.2. The customer's attention is drawn to the fact that it is possible that the computer software programme may possibly fail and may permit betting limits to be exceeded i.e. for example, if a horse racing betting limit is R10 000.00 but Top Bet's computer software programme permits a customer to take a bet to win R30 000.00 i.e. an excess of R20 000.00 over the permitted betting limit, then Top Bet shall be entitled, in its sole discretion, whether before, during or after the sporting event has taken place, to void the bet as regards the amount which exceeds the prescribed limit i.e. to replace the betting transaction with one that equals the limit amount that has been set and to adjust the amount staked.
- 9.3. In the event that a customer transacts a number of individual betting transactions which either constitute the same betting transactions and/or similar ones then these will be treated by Top Bet (at any time either before, during and/or after any one or more of the sporting events has occurred) as constituting one combined betting transaction. In the event, and as a result of the combining of the betting transactions, it should transpire that the maximum payout limit amount is exceeded, then Top Bet shall be entitled to adjust the betting transaction (combined) to bring same within the maximum payout limit (if necessary, Top Bet shall be entitled to void all betting transactions and to replace same with a single betting transaction)

- 9.4. The limits i.e. the maximum amount that a customer can win on any one betting transaction are those as indicated in Part D.
- 9.5. Although the maximum win limit amounts indicated in Part D limit the amount that a customer may win Top Bet, in its sole and unfettered discretion, shall be entitled to limit a customer's win limit amount. In the event that where a customer's win limit amount is fixed and this win limit amount is exceeded (due to human error and/or the malfunction of the computer hardware and/or the electronic software programme) Top Bet shall be entitled to adjust the betting transaction concerned, at any time, and in order to bring the betting transaction win limit amount within the customer's maximum win limit amount parameter.

10. MULTIPLE BETTING TRANSACTIONS

- 10.1. The customer shall be entitled to conclude a betting transaction which is multiple in nature and more particularly which involves the outcome of one or more sporting events which, if successful, results in the gross amount (the winnings and the amount stake) being carried forward to the sporting event that occurs next in time and date (commonly known as "all to comes").
- 10.2. Subject to 10.5, the customer shall be prohibited from transacting multiple betting transaction/s ("all to comes") where the outcome of one part of the betting transactions contributes to the outcome of another part of the betting transaction. An example of a prohibited multiple bet would be the Crusaders to win the rugby game ("all to comes") by one point. A further example of a prohibited multiple bet would be the Crusaders to win the rugby game ("all to comes"), the total points of the game to exceed 20 points.
- 10.3. The prohibition in respect of "all to comes" betting transaction/s shall extend to transactions where it involves the same teams and in the same tournament – for example, a prohibited multiple bet would be Manchester United to win the first round of the FA Cup and it to win the FA Cup.
- 10.4. In the event that the Electronic Agent should permit a prohibited multiple bet transaction, as indicated 10.2 and/or 10.3 for any reason whatsoever, then Top Bet shall settle the bet by equally dividing the stake unit where related outcomes clash.
- 10.5. The prohibitions recorded in 10.2 and 10.3 shall not apply in respect of sporting events which physically take place in North America. In this regard, the customer will be able to transact certain multiple betting transactions in the same sporting event, for example team A to win by more than 10 points and the total points of the game to exceed 20 points.

11. WORD OF WARNING

- 11.1. Top Bet draws specific attention to the fact that during the course of betting transactions between it and the customer, it is possible (Top Bet will obviously take all possible steps to prevent this occurring) that errors and/or omission may arise i.e. errors due to the failure of its computer hardware and/or software and/or due to human errors. By way of example, these include the failure by the computer system to reject/not permit certain betting transactions which are prohibited (multiple bets in the same event) or betting transactions which exceed limit impositions or the reflection of incorrect betting odds (due to miss typing).

In all these events, Top Bet shall be entitled to correct all errors and/or omissions and more particularly to cancel a betting transaction/s i.e. either before the sporting event concerned takes place, or during or thereafter (Top Bet will endeavour to communicate with the customer in regard to any correction / cancellation that it effects and to the customer's email address, the failure by the customer to receive such email advice shall not entitle the customer to contend for the existence of a valid and binding betting transaction contract).

11.2. If the customer should realise that Top Bet's computer software programme / and/or hardware and/or its employees/agents may have made an error in accepting a betting transaction (which should not have taken place), then the customer is urged to communicate with Top Bet to determine whether in fact an error has taken place and thereby to avoid the disappointment afterwards in being advised that the betting transaction concerned has been cancelled by Top Bet.

11.3. The importance of this warning is to be borne out of a recent decision by the Gauteng Gambling Board (in a matter concerning BetXchange and three punters) which declared that the acceptance by BetXchange of betting offers, (and the subsequent issuing of confirmations), which betting transactions were prohibited by BetXchange's terms and conditions (multiple all to come bets in the same rugby sporting event) could be voided and cancelled by BetXchange even though the sporting events concerned had already taken place.

5. SPECIFIC RULES RELATIVE TO EACH SPORTING EVENT

You agree and understand that each sporting event has its own rules, which rules determine whether the specific sporting event results in an outcome and more particularly an outcome which may result in the success of a particular betting transaction. 7. ERRORS GIVING RISE TO BETTING TRANSACTIONS BEING CHANGED

- 7.1. In order for You to understand why Top Bet reserves to itself the right to change betting transactions transacted with You, it is necessary to again emphasise that the Electronic Agent may fail and/or there may exist an error attributable to human error e.g. the betting odds on a sporting event may be incorrectly typed into the website e.g. odds of Manchester United, playing Bafana Bafana, incorrectly captured, as a result of a mistype, as 10/1 instead of 1/10, alternatively the incorrect odds may be automatically fed into the system by a feed provider.
- 7.2. You agree that Top Bet shall be entitled to change any betting transaction with You, more particularly at any time and more particularly after the sporting event concerned has been completed, as a consequence of the incorrect betting odds being reflected on the Website for any reason whatsoever. Top Bet shall be entitled to change the betting transaction by cancelling the existing betting transaction and replacing same with a substituted betting transaction and more particularly to reflect the correct odds that should have been available at the time that the betting transaction took place, should such odds be available. In the event that Top Bet is unable to ascertain what the odds which ought to have been available are, then Top Bet shall be entitled to cancel the transaction, and refund Your stake to You.
- 7.3. The correct betting odds, as dealt with in clause 7.2 above, shall be those betting odds that Top Bet has determined as being the betting odds which were generally available in the local or the international betting market at the time that the Transaction took place. - (3) "Betting in running" shall apply to all sports and other contingencies.
- (4) For settlement purposes in respect of sports event or contingencies the medal ceremony, prize giving or podium presentation will count as the official result.

12. Void bets

Unless otherwise specified in the rules applying to a specific sport, where a fixed odds bet is taken on an individual or team and such individual or team:

- (1) Is a "no show";
- (2) Is eliminated prior to the event through injury or sickness;
- (3) Is eliminated from the competition due to a technical infringement, excluding mechanical breakdown, crash, fall or injury during the event; such a bet will be void.

13. Soccer (Football)

The following shall apply to soccer (football):-

- (1) All soccer bets shall be settled on the score at full time (90 minutes played plus referee's optional time). Extra-time, golden-goal and penalties do not count.
- (2) In the event of extra time, a new market will be created.
- (3) Where a bet is struck "to win outright", "lift the cup" or "to progress" there shall be no betting on the draw, as extra time, golden-goal or penalties may be required to decide the outcome.
- (4) Prices shall be displayed on both teams as well as the draw. The price on the home team should be displayed first and then the price on the away team or it must be clearly indicated which is the home team.
- (5) If a team plays a different opponent to that which is advertised, or if the venue of a match is the reverse of that displayed, or if the venue is changed to a neutral ground, all bets on that match shall become void. Multiple bets which include that match shall stand with that match being treated as void.
- (6) (a) Where various betting opportunities are offered for the same match (e.g. correct score, first player to score, half-time or full-time result forecast) these cannot be combined in multiple bets where the outcome is related or where the result of one part of the bet contributes or assists in determining the outcome of another part of the bet. Where a multiple bet of this type has been accepted in error, it shall be settled by equally dividing the stake unit where the related outcomes clash; for example: Chelsea to win with the exact score 3-0 (10/1) and Chelsea to win in 90 minutes (1/1) is a related bet and therefore any bets placed on this double would be amended and the stake on the double split between the two individual bets; i.e. if R200 was placed on the double, the bet would be amended to read R100 on Chelsea to win 3-0 (1000/100) and R100 on Chelsea to win in 90 minutes (100/100).

- (b) Where various betting opportunities are offered for the same tournament (e.g. pick the finalists, teams to or not to proceed to further stages of the tournament, a team to win a group) these cannot be combined in multiple bets where the outcome is related. When a multiple bet of this type has been accepted in error, it will be settled by equally dividing the stake unit where the related outcomes clash.
- (7) (a) Should a match start and be abandoned prior to the completion of full time and an official result is declared by the governing association of the match or event within 24 hours, relevant bets will be determined on that result, notwithstanding any later changes to the result and/or error. However, in these circumstances, bets which are dependent upon the number of goals scored (including handicap bets) are void.
- (b) If a soccer match is officially called off prior to its scheduled completion and an official match result is not declared by the relevant recognised governing body within 24 hours, bets not determined at the time the match is concluded are deemed void. This does not apply to bets already determined at the conclusion of the match (e.g. first goal scorer).
- (8) (a) Settlement of “first or last player to score” bets shall be based on the goal scorer credited with the goal. Own goals do not count.
- (b) “First player to score” bets shall become void if the selected player does not take part or takes the field as a substitute after the first goal has been scored.
- (c) If a match is abandoned “first player to score” bets will stand provided a goal has been scored.
- (d) In “first goal scorer” bets and “any other goal scorer” bets, it means any player besides those quoted (having betting next to their name) in the event. Only players NOT quoted in this event will be taken into account for the “any other player” bets.
- (9) Bets on any matches that are postponed by more than 24 hours after the advertised date, or where there is a change of venue, shall become void.
- (10) Bets are accepted up to kick-off time. Any bet inadvertently taken where the kickoff time was earlier than when the bet was accepted will be void.
- (11) Bets struck “in running” must clearly state “in-running” on the ticket.
- (12) (a) Bets relating to time will be settled according to the timing of the broadcaster’s clock.

- (b) Where no clock is available to use, or the game is not on television, then all related bets will be settled according to the information published on the internet or by the Press Association.
- (13) All "soccer specials" are offered as one bet and should any part of the special not be determined for whatever reason, then the whole bet is void as the option was offered as one bet (e.g. Ryan Giggs to score the first goal and Manchester United to win - If Giggs does not play then the bet is void).
- (14) When betting on "first goal scorer" own goals (goals accidentally scored by the opposition for the other team) do not count unless otherwise specified.
- (15) For "time of first goal" bets (i.e. "first goal odds" markets), the first half is deemed to last 45 minutes, regardless of stoppage time. Also for these markets, please note that the "0-10 Minutes" selection covers the first 10 minutes of the match. In other words, it runs from 0:00 until 09:59. The "11-20 minutes" selection runs from 10:00 until 19:59. The same principle applies to each of the other selections in this market.
- (16) If a team is disqualified, thrown out or otherwise removed from a league, one of the following will apply:
 - (a) If this happens before the relevant season has started, all bets on all affected markets will be void (except for those on markets which have been unconditionally determined);
 - (b) If this happens after the relevant season has started, all affected markets will stand and the team will be deemed to be relegated and all bets on that team will be settled accordingly in all relevant markets (assuming, of course, that it is not subsequently reinstated before the end of the season);

The relevant season will be deemed to have started once the first league game has been played. For the purposes of this rule, markets relating to individual matches will not be deemed to be "affected markets".

- (17) "Correct Score" bets will be refunded where the Final Score was not offered as a betting option.
- (18) "Draw No Bet" markets are normal time bets. Single bets are refunded if the match is a draw at the end of normal time, whilst multiple Bets are recalculated excluding that leg.
- (19) In certain circumstances, Top Bet may offer odds on a team to progress to the next round or to win a competition outright. In these instances no draw price will be quoted and replays, extra time goal difference and penalty shootout will count on determining settlement of the bet.
- (20) Exotic markets including, but not limited to, "Correct Score", "HT/FT Doubles (Half time/Full Time)", "First Goal Scorer", "Total Goals", "Total Corners" and "Teams to Score" will all be resulted at the end of normal time.

14. Soccer Football (IN PLAY)

- (1) For everything other than horse racing if a market is not scheduled to be turned inplay but Top Bet fails to suspend the market at the relevant time, then:

- (a) If the event has a scheduled "off" time, all bets matched after that scheduled off time will be void; and
 - (b) If the event does not have a scheduled "off" time, Top Bet will use its reasonable endeavours to ascertain the time of the actual "off" and all bets after the time of the "off" determined by Top Bet will be void.
- (2) When live in play betting is offered, betting will be offered to the 80th minute in all local and international matches. Top Bet reserves the right not to offer any odds for live in play betting.

15. Athletics and Swimming

- (1) For settlement purposes the podium position or medal ceremony will count as the official result.
- (2) Betting on the winner of an event is offered on an All-In basis. No refunds will be given for non-starters or for competitors who retire or are disqualified mid-meet.
- (3) For head-to-head match-ups, both competitors must start the event.
- (4) Top Bet does not recognize overturned decision, for betting purposes we will only pay on podium positions, if they overturn the decision at a later stage our result (on podium position) will stand.

16. Boxing

The following shall apply to boxing:

- (1) In the event of a contest being postponed for more than 24 hours or should there be a substitution for one of the boxers, all bets will be void.
- (2) A price may be offered for a draw and in the event of that occurring; bets on either boxer to win will be losing bets.
- (3) If either boxer fails to answer the bell, his opponent will be deemed to have won the contest in the previous round for betting purposes.
- (4) A Points Decision is effective on completion of the scheduled number of rounds. Where for any reason a points decision is awarded before the full number of rounds is completed, bets will be settled on the round in which the fight was stopped.
- (5) If for any reason the number of rounds scheduled is changed, all "round by round" bets will be void.
- (6) Notwithstanding rule 12 (c), where a boxer is disqualified by reason of technical infringement such a low-blows, eye-gouging and head butting, such boxer will be deemed to have lost and all bets shall stand.
- (7) For all wagers on a boxer to win by Points Decision, the full scheduled number of rounds must take place for the wagers to be deemed winners.

- (8) All wagers on either fighter to win will be decided by the judges' decision, which includes points, technical knockout (TKO), knock out (KO) or disqualification.
- (9) The official stopping of a round before the sounding of the bell does not constitute a full round. A full round is only considered for wagering purposes to have been completed when the bell sounds signifying the end of the round.

17. Cricket

The following shall apply to cricket:

- (1) Limited Overs (one day matches) –
 - (a) In any limited-overs match, all bets will be settled in accordance with official competition rules including matches where a reduction of overs takes place.
 - (b) If a match is abandoned due to outside interference and no official result is declared, all bets will be void.
 - (c) In a weather affected match, where the minimum number of overs necessary to declare a match or result, has not been bowled, all bets on the game will be void, except those bets where the contingency bet on has already been concluded.
 - (d) Bets on matches that are reduced in length but not abandoned, including “in running” bets, will stand provided that the match has been completed and an official result declared. This applies whether the result is determined by the Duckworth/Lewis method or any other form of calculation used to determine the official result.
 - (e) All total runs bets on a single innings will stand regardless of how many overs have been bowled so long as an official result is declared.
 - (f) Bets will stand for all postponed matches so long as they are played within 24 hours. If there is a change of venue or team selection, bets will be declared void.
 - (g) When a match is tied:
 - (i) Top batsman, bowler and total bets shall stand;
 - (ii) Match bets are void unless tie betting is quoted.
 - (h) In “top batsman” and “top bowler” betting, and “runs scored by an individual batsman” or “wickets taken by individual bowlers”:
 - (i) Bets on any player not in the starting eleven shall be void;
 - (ii) Bets shall become void in a match where at least one ball has not been bowled to both sides;
 - (iii) Top batsman and bowler bets will stand so long as the player is picked to play in the match irrespective of whether he bats/bowls or not and such players will be deemed to have scored zero runs and taken zero wickets respectively;

- (iv) Head to head bets in this sub rule require at least one ball to have been bowled and a minimum of 25 overs to have been bowled or the relevant innings to have been completed to stand. Ties will be void;
- (v) Bets on an individual batsman's runs will be void if he does not face at least one ball;
- (vi) Dead-heat rules apply for "top batsman/bowler" and "catches" betting;
- (vii) If a match is abandoned before a bowler can complete his allotted overs or take more wickets than the other bowler then bets are void

(2) Five day matches –

- (a) Top batsman/bowler rules apply as for limited overs matches.
- (b) At least one ball must be bowled for bets to stand, otherwise affected bets are void.
- (c) If a match is officially abandoned due to outside interference and no official result is declared, then undecided bets on the match are void.
- (a) In the event of a tie, i.e. both teams have completed two innings each and have the same score, dead-heat rules will apply, and bets on the draw will be losing bets.

(3) Series betting - test or one day:

- (a) Bets are void if the designated number of matches in the series is not completed, unless a sufficient number of matches have been played to determine the series.
- (b) Correct score bets shall become void if the stipulated number of matches is not played.

(4) Tournament or Series –

- (a) In a tournament or series, where a bet on an outright winner has been taken and the trophy is shared due to a tie or a no result, dead-heat rules apply. However, bets on a team to win a final are void if the match ends in a tie.

(5) For Twenty20 matches that end in a tie after the allotted number of overs, all bets on 'to win the match' shall be refunded, the super over does not count. For all other betting on the match (i.e. High Bats, Most Sixes, Most Run Outs, Batting and Bowling Match-ups, etc.) the tie breaker is not included.

(6) If a match is transferred to a reserve day, all wagers will carry over. (Provision of the 24 hours).

(7) For Limited Overs matches where the official result is a tie, (no tie quoted) bets will be refunds.

- (8) For Correct Series Score betting, all scheduled matches must have a winner declared. Otherwise all single wagers are void and bets refunded, while affected multiples will be recalculated excluding that leg.

18. Golf

The following shall apply to golf:

- (1) (a) Where a tournament which is scheduled for 72 holes is abandoned for any reason, all bets on the outcome of the tournament are void, unless an official result is declared by the relevant recognised governing body within 48 hours.
- (b) In the event that a tournament is abandoned prior to completion of the scheduled number of holes any bets placed after the point in the tournament where no further play occurred are deemed void.
- (2) Where a tournament is suspended by the recognised governing body and no official result declared under circumstances where the balance of the tournament is intended to be rescheduled, all bets not yet determined are to be held in trust by Top Bet until a result is declared by the relevant recognised governing body. In these circumstances, if a result is not declared within 7 days of the original scheduled commencement date; all bets not yet determined are deemed void.
- (3) (a) All outright bets are settled on the player who wins the trophy and any play-off holes will be taken into account when determining the winner of a tournament.
- (b) In the case of place bets where there is a tie after completion of the predetermined number of holes (subject to rule 17 (1) and 17 (2) herein), the revised pay-out payable shall be calculated by the following method:
- (i) Divide the face value of the sports bet (the original pay-out and the original stake) by the number of competitors involved in the tie, draw or dead-heat, then
- (ii) Multiply the figure obtained in (i) by the number of official placings to be filled by the competitors involved in the tie, draw or dead-heat.

Example 1: Tiger Woods wins a tournament; Ernie Els finishes 2nd; and Adam Scott, Retief Goosen, Vijay Singh and Michael Campbell finish in a tie for 3rd place. If you have selected Scott to finish in the placings at 5/1 and you wagered 1000/2000, the original pay-out of 1000 would be divided by 4 leaving the face value of the bet at 250/50. The official placings filled by the competitors who have tied is 2 (assuming you are paying the top 4 places), viz: 3rd and 4th place, so the bet would become 500/100.

Example 2: Woods wins a tournament, Els and Scott tie for 2nd, Goosen, Singh, Campbell and Garcia tie for 4th. Your wager is 2000/500 on Garcia to finish in the top 4. Your bet would be 500/125.

- (4) Bets shall become void on any player failing to tee off in the first round and subsequent withdrawals shall be deemed to be losers.
- (5) A player who tees off is deemed "under orders" and all outright and match bets stand.

- (6) The following applies to “make the cut” betting –
- (a) For bet to stand the name player must play 36 holes (or 54 holes where the cut is made at that point);
 - (b) If a player is deemed to have made the cut if the player is eligible to play in the round after the cut has been made (even if he chooses not to). If a player is not eligible to do so (even if the rules for the cut have been changed during the tournament) that player is deemed to have missed the cut.
- (7) The following applies to tournament group betting –
- (a) This is the betting on specified groups of players to achieve the lowest individual aggregate (or the best placing) for the whole tournament irrespective of how far each player progresses;
 - (b) Bets shall become void on any player in that group who fails to start the tournament and deduction rules shall apply on the remaining players in that group; and
 - (c) Dead heat rules applicable to horse racing shall apply if 2 or more players tie for 1st place in the group.
- (8) The following applies to tournament match betting –
- (a) This is betting on specified pairings to achieve the higher placing (or the lowest individual aggregate score) for the whole tournament, on a selected day or a number of selected days;
 - (b) Prices are quoted for the tie in match betting (i.e. both players to achieve the same overall score after 72 holes, inclusive of when the number of holes has been reduced providing that it is not fewer than 36 holes and an official result has been declared by the recognised governing body);
 - (c) And if either player fails to take any part in the tournament, or if the specific round is abandoned, bets on that match shall become void; and
 - (d) Play-off holes do not count; unless the bet was made specifically to exclude the tie; i.e. one player to win outright against another in the tournament match betting scenario.
- (9) The following applies to two, three and four balls matches –
- (a) All bets are settled on the lowest single round score over the specified 18 holes play and all 18 holes must be completed;
 - (b) If a player starts a round but fails to complete it, all bets on that player will be deemed losers regardless of score;
 - (c) All bets shall become void if the specified round is abandoned or if any one of the players fails to start the round;

- (d) Dead-heat rules applicable to horse racing shall apply for three and four balls if more than one player achieves the lowest score, unless a tie is quoted;
 - (e) A tie will be quoted for two-ball betting and where a tie occurs all bets on players are losers, unless it clearly states that betting is quoted with no tie;
 - (f) In the event of a player listed in a three or four-ball withdrawing before the event has started all bets on that specific three or four ball are void;
 - (g) If for any reason a player withdraws or is disqualified during the tournament after he has teed off (i.e. played one stroke), all bets will stand on that three or four ball;
 - (h) If 2 or 3 players are tied on the same score they will be settled as a dead heat for betting purposes, unless they are involved in a playoff, where the winner of the three or four ball is the golfer with the lowest finishing score. If all three or four golfers miss the cut the player with the lowest score will be deemed the winner.
- (10) Wagers accepted after the conclusion of a day's play in a tournament where there is no further play which counts towards the result of a tournament, will be void and refunded whilst affected multiples will be recalculated excluding that leg.
- (11) Where a game is abandoned with no official result:
- a) If the market is being traded in running, the make-up will be the mid-point of the quote at the time at which play ceases. (Applicable for spread betting);

The championship result will not be affected by any subsequent protests, processes or amendments to placings.
- (2) In the case of Grand Prix betting –
 - (a) For settlement purposes the podium position or medal ceremony immediately after the race shall count as the official result. The result will not be affected by any subsequent protests, processes or amendments to placing;

- (b) In the event that the number of laps in the race is reduced for any reason, bets will stand and the podium finish applied to determine the outcome of the event;
- (c) Bets will be void on any driver who withdraws from the race prior to the commencement of the warm-up lap (also referred to as the formation or practice lap). Once the warm-up lap is underway, all contestants are “under starter’s orders” and all bets stand;
- (b) In the case of “head-to-head” betting between two drivers or cars, if either or both fails to finish, the outcome will be determined in accordance with which car or driver completes the most laps, even if the number of laps is reduced for any reason. In the
- (c) event that both are accredited with completing the same number of laps, dead heat rules apply;
- (3) Any bets on the constructors’ title will stand whether they participate or not provided that one of the constructors’ cars must start at least one race.

- (4) Prices shall be displayed on both teams as well as the draw if applicable, and it shall be clearly indicated which is the home team.

- (6) If a team plays a different opponent to that which is advertised, or if the venue of a match is the reverse of that displayed, all bets on that match shall become void.
- (7) Where various betting opportunities are offered for the same match (e.g. correct score, first player to score, half-time or full-time result forecast) these cannot be combined in multiple bets where the outcome is related or where the result of one part of the bet contributes or assists in determining the outcome of another part of the bet. Where a multiple bet of this type has been accepted in error, it shall be settled by equally dividing the stake unit where the related outcomes clash.

- (8) Where various betting opportunities are offered for the same tournament (e.g. a team to win a group, a team to progress or not to progress to further stages of the tournament, pick the finalists or semi-finalists) there cannot be combined in multiple bets where the outcome is related or where the result of part of the bet contributes or assists in determining the outcome of another part of the bet. Where a multiple bet of this type has been accepted in error, it shall be settled by equally dividing the stake unit where the related outcomes clash.

 - (e) Bets stand regardless of whether the player who is the subject of the bet or any other player takes or leaves the field or is dismissed from the game; and
 - (f) "any other try scorer" means any player besides those quoted (having betting next to their name) in the event. Only players NOT quoted in this event will be taken into account for the "any other player" bets.
- (11) "Half-time/full-time" betting is applied to which team is winning at half-time and which team wins the match at full-time, with the option of the draw included in bet permutation.
- (12) Any matches that are postponed by more than 24 hours after the advertised date or where there is a change of venue will be void for betting purposes.
- (13) The provisions of rule 2 shall apply mutatis mutandis.
- (14) Where markets on rugby matches or groups of matches are the same, in principle, as those on football matches or groups of matches, the principles set out in the section "Football" above will prevail. This applies equally to tournament markets. For example: in a market about time of the first try, where no try is scored the make-up will be 80 minutes (regulation time) regardless of any injury time added on.
- (15) If a penalty try is awarded in a Rugby Union match, the shirt number of the try scorer will be deemed to be eight. If a penalty try is awarded in a Rugby League match, the shirt number of the try scorer will be deemed to be that of the player awarded the penalty try. Only regulation time, no extra time applies.
- (17) For "First Try Scorer", "Last Try Scorer" to score a try and "First Team Try Scorer" markets, for any players not in the starting 15 on the day, the stakes will be refunded for single bets, whilst multiples will be recalculated excluding that leg. Only regulation time, no extra time applies.
- (18) "Second Half" wagers relate solely to the score in the second half of regulation time, no extra time applies. (Scores start from 0-0 at half time).
- (19) Six Nations betting, the grand slam refers to a victory against all other teams in the competition. Triple Crown betting refers to one of England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales defeating the three other teams in the market. For both of these betting options the no grand slam or no triple crown shall be deemed the winner if no team defeats all others. Draws are not considered as victories or as half face value for the purpose of these markets.
- (20) For "Time of First Try" betting, pay outs are based on the official clock. Specifically the 8th minute ends at 08:00 (8 minutes and zero seconds) and the 9th minute begins at 08:01 (8 minutes and 1 second).

Any bets taken before the Friday (i.e. prior to three days before the scheduled start of the tournament) will be deemed losers should a player withdraw for any reason whatsoever.
- (7) For "Match Winner" and "Total Games Doubles", the match must run to full completion.(8). For "First Set Winner" and "Set Score" betting, the applicable set must be completed for bets to stand.
- (8) For "Sets Total" betting, a ball must be served in the third set of a best of three sets match and in the fifth set of a best of five sets match for bets to stand.

Should any competitor not cross the official starting line, single bets will be void and stakes refunded, whilst multiple bets will be recalculated excluding that leg. Should only one cyclist complete the applicable stage or race, they will be deemed the winner. Should no cyclist in the head-to-head or group complete the applicable stage or race, then bets will be deemed void.
- (3) Cycling bets are settled as per the official classification listing at the time of the podium presentation. Post-podium, Top Bet does not recognise overturned decisions for betting purposes.

Spread Betting

24. Betting rules for spread betting

- (1) In this rule, unless the context otherwise indicates, the term set out below shall have the following meanings:

PART D
WIN LIMITS

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Top Bet imposes those win limit amounts as set out in the schedules in this Part D (in paragraphs 4, 5 and 6) (paragraph 6 contains win limit imposition schedules in regard to sporting events which have not yet commenced and in regard to paragraph 6 win limit imposition schedules these are relative to various types of betting transactions on various sporting events which constitute “in running” sporting events or a combination of in running sporting events and sporting events that are yet to commence).
- 1.2. The win limit amounts are imposed so as to limit the financial exposure of Top Bet.
- 1.3. Although the win limit amounts are imposed by Top Bet by it instructing the software computer programme to capture such impositions, it is unfortunately possible that this capturing does not take place and/or is captured incorrectly and/or these change without any outside influence examples whereof are:-
 - 1.3.1. Human error / fraud (where the computer hardware operator changes the limits and/or instructs incorrect limits; and/or
 - 1.3.2. The malfunctioning of the computer hardware and/or the software computer programme.
- 1.4. In the event the win limit impositions, (as indicated in the schedules herein under), are exceeded as a result of any of those matters indicated in 1.3 hereinabove, then Top Bet shall be entitled, at any time, to amend the betting transaction/s concerned in order to bring same within the win limit imposition/s – Top Bet shall furthermore have the right to reverse any credit that has been credited to the Account and where necessary to credit the Account with any amount wagered, which crediting is necessary as a result of the alteration of a betting transaction to bring it within the imposed win limit amount.
- 1.5. In many instances Top Bet does not “take back” totalisator betting transactions (commonly known as the “open bet”) from the South African Tote Operator. Accordingly You have the added advantage of receiving a dividend higher than that dividend You would obtain from the Tote Operator if you had placed the betting transaction concerned with the Tote Operator. However notwithstanding the win limit impositions in regard to Totalisator betting transactions, a further limit is imposed in regard to such betting transactions i.e. You cannot receive a betting transaction totalisator dividend which exceeds the net pool relative to that particular betting transaction e.g. if the win pool on a horse racing event is R1000 (one thousand Rand) and You place a R1000 (one thousand Rand) stake on a particular horse which then wins at a Tote dividend win amount of R10 (ten Rand), You will not be paid R10 000 (ten thousand Rand) but rather R1000 (one thousand Rand).

2. SPECIFIC TERMS AND CONDITIONS IN REGARD TO WIN LIMIT IMPOSITION

- 2.1. You acknowledge, agree and confirm that all betting transactions with Top Bet shall be subject to the win limit impositions indicated in this Part D.

You acknowledge that it is possible that the computer software programme (due to an error/malfunction) of Top Bet and/or the conduct / misconduct of its employees and/or agents' conduct may result in Top Bet accepting your betting transaction offer (notwithstanding your undertaking indicated in 2.3) notwithstanding that such offer exceeds the win limit impositions indicated in the schedules in this Part D.
- 2.5. You agree that should You breach the undertaking indicated in 2.3 and should Top Bet accept a prohibited offer from you then in such event Top Bet, in its discretion, shall be entitled to void / cancel the betting transaction alternatively shall be entitled to reduce the betting transaction win limit amount so as to bring it within the maximum win limit imposition amount as indicated in the schedules in this Part D.
- 2.6. You agree that should Top Bet credit the Account with an amount relative to a successful betting transaction which exceeds the win limit imposition amount then Top Bet shall be entitled in its sole discretion to debit the Account with an amount by which the win limit amount has been exceeded or debit it with the entire win amount applicable to the betting transaction concerned.

3. DAILY OVERALL WIN LIMIT

- 3.1. The maximum winnings that You may win in a period of 24 (twenty four) hours is R1 500 000.00 (one and a half million Rand), which is exclusive of the stakes, and inclusive of additional sum awarded to You in respect of any bonus or promotion afforded to You by Top Bet.
- 3.2. The daily overall win limit shall apply to a customer, or a group of customers acting together, who have placed bets with the same selections, including but limited to a case where such bets have been placed in a series of bets, at different prices, over a number of days using different betting accounts and/or across different betting channels. In the event that Top Bet is of the view that a number of bets have been placed in this manner, the total payment of all of those bets combined shall be limited to a single maximum winnings payout.
